ACADEMIC PROJECTS

ENCRYPTION AND DECRYPTION

Encryption is the process of converting plain text into a coded format to prevent unauthorized access. Decryption reverses this process, converting the coded data back into its original form for authorized users. These techniques are fundamental in cybersecurity for protecting sensitive information during transmission and storage.

PASSWORD GENERATOR

Developed a Python script to generate secure random passwords of varying lengths. The script utilizes Python's random and string modules to ensure passwords include a mix of uppercase and lowercase letters, digits, and special characters

COLLEGE EVENT MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

A College Event Management System in DBMS involves a database to manage and streamline event organization. It stores information on event details, participant registration, resource allocation, and schedules, allowing for efficient data retrieval and updates. This system enhances coordination and planning, ensuring smooth execution of college event
